Imagine the Power...

... If You Could
Invent the Future!

A World of Possibilities

Congratulations!

You have just taken the first and most difficult step on the road to success - that is, being prepared to look! The next step is being prepared to listen to those who have read this brochure before you and who are already seeing significant changes in their financial positions.

Founded in 1989 with sales of $1.5 billion, Lifestyles is currently operating in 14 countries with a worldwide team of Distributors who between them have earned a staggering $900 million - and each and every one of them started as you are now - by reading a brochure like this one.

Think about it...

Every major corporation in the world today was started because someone dared to give it a try.

How about you?

With Lifestyles, you're in business for yourself but not by yourself

As a Lifestyles Independent Distributor, you establish your own hours and your own goals. Lifestyles, for its part, produces, warehouses and ships products, processes orders and produces sales and technical support materials. Our elaborate computer program tracks your sales volume, and that of your entire organization, and once a month sends all invoices, bonus cheques, organizational reports and the latest information on Lifestyles products and the company directly to you.

Combine our superior product line with an outstanding compensation plan and unique Lifebuilder training program and you have a formula for success and financial independence unlike any other.
